

RND Subscription Tiers & Rates Available

Subscriptions Tiers and associated pricing have been established for General Availability starting November 1, 2021.

Querying access to the RND is through a pre-paid tiered, subscription-based fee structure. The tiers are based on the number of queries the subscriber (Caller and/or Caller Agent) anticipates making in the RND and the subscription shall be based on the period during which the subscriber may make the queries.

Each tier shall be associated with a flat-rate amount, charged at the beginning of the period, and which covers the volume of queries during that period up to the upper query volume limit.

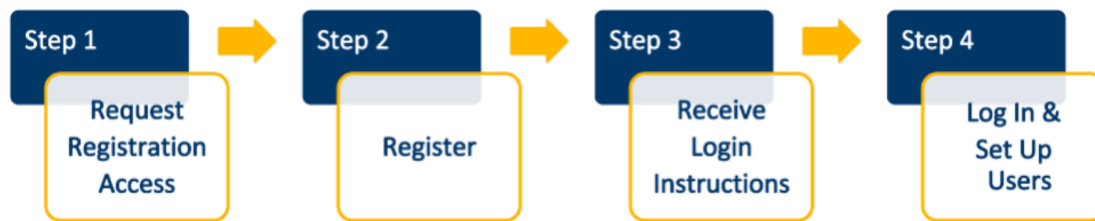

The RND has six subscription tiers: extra-small, small, medium, large, extra-large, and jumbo, as defined in the table, below. Those wishing to use the RND may sign up for a one-month subscription, a three-month subscription, or a six-month subscription. In time, the RND Administrator (Administrator) expects to offer an annual subscription option as well.

Starting November 1st, if you are a new registrant or have previously registered as a Caller or Caller Agent during the Beta Test Period, you will see the following subscription options when logging into the RND:

For new Registrants as Callers or Caller Agents

Step 1: Register

Interested parties should have their Primary Contact send an email to support@reassigned.us, indicating the type of registrant (Caller or Caller Agent). You will then receive an email from RND Customer Support with a link to the online registration process. For more information on the registration process, please review the Caller Registration User Guide located at <https://www.reassigned.us/resources/guides>.

Step 2: Login

Once registered as the Primary Contact, you can invite users from your company to access the RND. Additionally, you can manage your company's users, profile, subscription types, and billing information.

If you are a Caller Agent, you can add new Client Companies to your profile after securing a Letter of Authorization from your clients. The LOA template can be found here.

Step 3: Select Your Subscription

Choose your subscription based on your anticipated querying needs. Once you have selected your subscription, you will be directed to enter in billing contact and payment.

Step 4: Start Querying

You can now begin querying the RND with your clients' phone numbers and dates of consent via the Web GUI, SFTP, or API. For more information, please visit our Resources Page for the Query Guide, Caller API Guide, and User SFTP guides.

Please note, querying will be available on November 1, 2021, the RND is refreshed monthly, and the latest data is available on the 17th of every month.
